

Guidelines for Acquiring a Food Manager's Certificate

- 1) The Texas Department of State Health services website provides details on Certified Food Manager Programs.

<http://www.dshs.state.tx.us/foodestablishments/CFM.shtm>

- 2) Click on the Certification of Food Managers link

<http://www.dshs.state.tx.us/foodestablishments/CFM.shtm#certprog>

The above link provides details on certification training programs, test sites, online exam providers, etc.

- 3) Click on the Online Exam Providers for a list of state approved agencies.

<http://www.dshs.state.tx.us/foodestablishments/CFM.shtm#online>

- 4) The Garland Health Department accepts Learn2Serve (<http://www.learn2serve.com/>) certification.

Details of the online prep course and exam for Texas Food Manager are at

<http://www.learn2serve.com/Texas/food-safety-certification.cfm>

Choose one of the packages or individual courses listed. When you have successfully passed the exam (score of 70 or greater), an electronic certificate will be available for download.

- 5) When you have successfully passed the exam (score of 70 or greater), an electronic certificate will be available for download.

- 6) Print the Food Managers Certificate and take it to the City of Garland Health Department at

1720 Commerce St
Garland, TX 75040-6710
(972) 205-3460

- 7) The Garland Health Department will issue you a Food Manager Certificate. You will need to fill out a form and pay a fee of $30.